Facilitating Service for Dissolution of Civil Servants' Co-operative Building Society

(CBS-1: KC Project & CBS-2: KC Project)

The Urban Renewal Authority (URA) is committed to undertake the renewal of old districts, help meet the housing needs and improve the living environment of the people in Hong Kong. URA has identified two clusters of buildings developed under the Civil Servants' Co-operative Building Society Scheme in Kowloon City district as pilot redevelopment projects. Once the necessary approvals are obtained, URA will proceed with acquisition of the properties.

Urban Redevelopment Facilitating Services Company Limited ("URFS") will provide free service to facilitate the dissolution of the co-operative building societies ("CBSs") in the pilot projects. After the CBSs have been dissolved successfully and their members becoming owners of individual properties, CBS members will be eligible to accept URA's acquisition offers.

Our Service
